Notice

The BAMMC Department is proud to announce the upcoming International TEDx Event on 10th December 2025.

To ensure a strong online presence and engagement, we are inviting social media volunteers from all departments. This is your chance to showcase creativity, manage digital content, and promote one of the most prestigious global platforms!

Responsibilities include:

1. Creating and sharing engaging posts, reels, and stories.
2. Designing digital creatives and content

Interested students are requested to register with the below mentioned scan code.

Be the digital voice of TEDx and gain real-world experience in social media management!
