NOTICE

We are pleased to inform you that our institution has tied up with the American Library, a prestigious seat of learning, knowledge, research and more.

Located at Bandra-Kurla Complex (BKC) in the American Embassy complex, the American Library is now officially and popularly also known as Dosti House, your American Space in Mumbai.

The Library offers a wide array of books and online resources along with world-class facilities and services.

You have a golden opportunity to avail of the same as the college has obtained the institutional membership with the American Library.

That means Nirmalites have access to a rich collection of books, magazines, journals, CDs, etc. along with an inexhaustible treasure of digital resources in practically every field.

In addition, the Library also hosts informative as well as entertaining events like film screening, career guidance programs, competitions, guest lectures and more regularly.

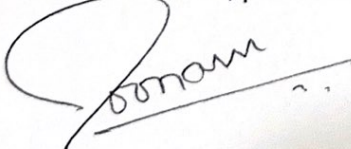

Whether you are pursuing Management Studies, Computers and IT, Science, Humanities, Media, Commerce, Social Sciences or any other discipline, you can enhance knowledge, sharpen your research aptitude and upgrade yourselves at a global level by being a part of the American Library.

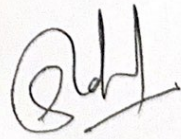

All you have to do is first gain an understanding of the procedures and services available to you at the College Library.

Subsequently, you shall be visiting the College Library regularly to refer to books borrowed from the American Library and know what additional services you can avail of at any point of time.

You can also give suggestions about the publications that you would want the college to obtain from the American Library for you.

For more details, please contact Mr Ravindra Pawar, Librarian.
